

Asterisk Combat Boots

Amongst the products which COSEM has marketed, under its registered product brand name Asterisk, includes combat boots.

The Asterisk combat boots is suitable for use in all kinds of tropical climatic conditions. These hardy boots have been tested and proven effective in ground conditions which include wet, dry, muddy, highly abrasive surfaces, rocks and grass ground.

The boots are also comfortable to wear with no seasoning required. They are waterproof and water vapour permeable and perfectly fit Asian feet. In addition, these boots do not contain any pig skin or pig products making them permissible for Muslim wearers.

The Asterisk logo consists of a blue starburst symbol followed by the word "Asterisk" in a blue, sans-serif font.

Specifications:

- Materials : Boot vamp that is made up of black full grain and water resistant leather while and its outsole is made from Thermoplastic Polyurethane [TPU].
- Inserts Cushioning : Each pair comes with cushioning inserts made of latex foam which is shaped to the contour of the foot and has a built-in arch support for maximum comfort.
- Design : Derby design with leather tongue extending generously from top line to vamp for ease of foot entry.
- Weight : Approximately 700 gm.
- Height : Approximately 25 cm (from the back including the heels).